

Renaissance	having to do with a town or city
Secular	A religious movement that produced a new form of Christianity known as Protestantism
Urban	a religious belief that God has already decided who will go to heaven and who will not
Mercenary	a school for religious training
Diplomacy	a pardon, or forgiveness, of a sin
Humanism	a renewal or rebirth of interest in Greek and Roman arts
Reformation	a religious belief that contradicts what the church says is true
Indulgence	related to worldly things
Predestination	the practice of conducting negotiations between countries
Annul	belief in the worth of the individual and that reason is a path to knowledge
Seminary	a soldier who fights for money rather than loyalty to a country
Heresy	to declare invalid